The newsletter "InkGazette" is a creative but informative document created by the members of IIMP Ink Society. It is an initiative taken by the students to encourage others to be a part of the whole process of creating this document. Along with academic studies, students are encouraged to follow their passion for writing. Also, participating in various activities and events will let the students showcase and at the same time improve their skills. This will surely make the years in college interesting and worth remembering. This Newsletter is the window to the activities of the college.

“The Day-2 of the ‘fun with learning’ approach by DigiClub”

Oct 1, Saturday: The Day-1 of DigiClub’s logo inauguration by RJ Kedar Joshi, our Director – Dr. Pandit Mali sir and our Dean- Dr. Anjali Kalkar ma’am; pleased the audience and made them even more excited for the activities on Day-2.

The games for the day were – Run Tac Toe, Last Five Seconds, Spaghetti High and The Final Hanging. All these were to be played in teams that were formed prior and the students didn’t know who were their team mates. The number of students participating was around 100 -150.

The first game ‘Run Tac Toe’ was similar to ‘Tic Tac Toe’ that was about ‘coordination and presence of mind’. The next game ‘Last 5 seconds’ was about ‘Time management and interaction among team members’. Similarly, ‘Spaghetti High’ was about ‘Team work and making the best possible use of available resources’; and the ‘Final Hanging’ was similar to a relay race and was about ‘Coordination among the members.’

“IIMP’s atmosphere turned pink on this day!”

Oct 4, Tuesday: As the festival of Navratri was progressing, students, teachers and other faculty members were seen following the different colors of Navratri in their outfit, every day.

But with the high demand of students, the management of IIMP allowed the students and faculty members to wear a decent traditional outfit. A color code of pink was set for the day and it was also told that the ones who do not have traditional outfits in pink, can wear smart casuals of the same color. Since, none of the students or faculty would ignore such an instruction by the management, IIMP’s atmosphere turned pink on this day!

“Launch of InkGazette and the introduction of Blog Talk”

Oct 14, Friday: IIMP finally launched the newsletter of IIMP – the InkGazette. Along with this, it also introduced a concept named ‘Blog Talk’ which is inspired by the Ted Talk, followed by some interesting activities.

The guest for the event was Adv. H. B. Keshava - Managing Attorney Baskaran & Associates. After the felicitation of the guest by our Dean ma’am, two of the members of IIMP Ink Society presented a wonderful presentation letting the audience know about Ink Society and its past activities. That was followed by the inauguration of the hard copy of InkGazette, which was specially created by its editorial board, for this purpose.

After that, the ‘Blog Talk’ was introduced by Digvijay Gaikwad (core committee member of IIMP Ink Society), followed by his own Blog talk on the topic – Microblogging and _logging (dash-logging). This will be continued on a regular basis, by the Ink Society.

This was followed by some interesting activities named ‘Kavya talent’ that asked students to write a shayari, a line or a paragraph from the last two words of the song played; and ‘Pehchan ke dikhao’ that asked the students to guess the movie from its summary narrated by the members. Overall, it was a fun-filled event that was titled ‘a mehfil’ by the audience.

“Interview of our director - Dr. Pandit Mali sir by the editorial board”

Oct 21, Friday: Our director sir was awarded with the ‘Best director award’ by ‘GCC leadership awards 2022’ in Dubai. Hence, on this occasion, our editorial board, with three of our FY students- Avantika Chowdhary, Santosh Rai, Fredo Johnny and Vaidehi Mohite from SY; interviewed sir.

The interview proved very motivational and inspirational for the editorial board since Dr. Pandit mali sir shared some really useful tips for being a good leader, his hobbies, how he maintains the balance between his work and passion, how does he stay fit in this stressful atmosphere and how does he rejuvenate himself, etc. He was very happy to interact with all of us and wished us good luck as the interview ended.

Hope!

I have lost touch with the hope, Baffled, battling the demons inside, Increasingly wanting to shut the storms, Making it calm, to be precise.

Dead ends, no roads, to carry blood, The soul wrenching to get out, The draught and the flood.

Manly sayings? all are irrelevant, The chaos of the head, Stating everything, I haven't...

To continue, will be to much to say, I hope again and again and again, To not give up and stay.
