What's Happening In Indira?

From 7th september to 17th September,2024...

“The year’s most awaited time is here...
When enthusiasm seems to float in the air,
Our beloved pot - bellied Lord
comes riding on his mouse,
With laughter, joy and happiness, he fills our house...
So let the aarti’s begin and the modaks be steamed, for it is finally the time for the day of which we had all dreaded...

May the Lord bless us with love, laughter and light
And may there always be a bright day ahead of every dark night !”

The Ganesh festival is a huge celebration in all parts of Maharashtra. During this season, not one corner of the state remains dull. Each and every household is bustling with energy and enthusiasm and eagerly waiting to welcome their beloved Lord “Ganesh”.

Our Indira Group of Institues is nothing short of a big family and we too celebrated this festival with complete vim and zest. Our institute welcomed Ganpati bappa with fervor and continued with the same energy for the remaining ten days.

IGI understood the devotional aspect of this festival along with its emotional dynamic. Indira Institues made sure that no student, who was away from home, missed the joy that this festival brings and ensured that each and every student and faculty thoroughly enjoyed each and every second of this festival’s grandeur !

Creativity is boundless. Our dear potbellied lord is sometimes loved in his form as Shiva, sometimes when he is crushing a demon under his leg and sometimes even as a favourite movie character like the pushpa ganapati...

Whatever be the form, our dear Ganpati Bappa never fails to shower his love and blessings on all of us because it is not in how our bappa looks but the devotion with which his murti is made...the sculptors add so much love and devotion to their mix of clay that whatever form the lord takes, it's always magical...

Indira realised the love that its students hold for this deity and decided to conduct a pottery making workshop for all students as well as their faculty...

This workshop was so full of excitement and enthusiasm to give form to their favourite bappa with their own hands!

By the end of this workshop, the hearts were full with love and devotion and our bappa was ready to be welcomed in the homes and fill it with love, laughter and light !

Teacher's Day Celebration...

On 5th september, 2024.

गुरु ब्रह्मा गुरु विष्णु, गुरु देवो महेश्वरा गुरु साक्षात् परब्रह्म, तस्मै श्री गुरुवे नमः

Our teachers are like our second set of parents. They guide us, show us the right path, scold us if necessary and ultimately provide us with the knowledge and strength which we need to face the hardships that this world has to offer.

They say life and its experiences are the best teachers. Life offers us with experiences so rich in knowledge, that if studied closely, one can truly become wise.

Indira institutes took into consideration how crucial life experiences can be and offered a different twist to this year's teacher's day celebration.

This year, on teacher's day, the professors weren't the ones who taught the students, but instead their seniors, who were more experienced and a lot more knowledgeable than them. They shared their experiences with their respective fields, their learnings from these experiences and surely gave their juniors an enlightened path on which they could choose to walk, holding the light of wisdom that was provided by their seniors.

The Universe is Listening and Responding!

The entire world is now facing a new challenge of survival of the fittest. We live in an era where technology has captured our mind and body. We are unable to stay away from electronic devices and hence tend to face a lot of stress and conflicts. The media hammers our mind with social media posts, news, reels and videos with immense extremities and negativity. As an outcome, we also feed our mind with pessimism and lose our mental peace.

We need to highlight the excellent virtues of kindness and compassion in life. We constantly need to say no to negatives. We should kick out the curse of Kama: Desire or lust, Krodha: Anger, Lobha: Greed, Mada: Ego, Moha: Attachment, Matsara: Jealousy, being 6 enemies of the mankind. The Universe is the finest creation of God.

It staunchly underlines the Karma philosophy of Shrimad Bhagvadgeeta. If you sow good deeds, you shall reap the fruits for the same. Hence, Universe always responds to what you believe and not what you wish for. We need to follow our intuition, manifest our dreams, open our mind by relaxing and listening to what comes to us and finally stay alert to the messages from the Universe which come to us as gifts.

The Almighty God is the Supreme Controller of the World. We need to trust him in the moment of Crisis as well as Pleasure. Difficult roads always lead to beautiful destinations. The Universe will conspire to fulfil your dreams if you carry the 'Never Say Die' attitude. Universe has the voice that doesn't use the words. It inspires you through enlightenment and self-realization. Go ahead and live it to the fullest!

And remember that the Universe is Listening and Responding!
